COUNTY COURT .- The Alexandria county court, which has been in session during the present week at Fort Myer Heights, is expected to adjourn for the Foremost among the matters considered at this term was the "Military Road" case. This case involves the right of Messrs. Dulany and Marshall, attorneys of Washington, to close the nighway between Washington and the government reservation at Fort Myer. In this case, the title of which is Commonwealth vs. H. P. Marshall, Judge Love on Monday settled and signed the several bills of exception taken by the defendant to his rulings in the trial of the case in which H. P. Marshall was convicted of obstructing the in addition to the indictments might in by the grand jury, heretofore mentioned in the Gazette, true son, Charles Sanderson and Frank Foster, all charged with selling liquor without a license. Upon motion of the defendants, the cases all went over un-presented for probate by Attorney W. W. Douglass. Objection was made by Clements, representing the husband of the deceased, who filed a notice of contest, alleging that the deceased was of unsound mind when said will was drawn; that improper influthe will was otherwise defective. The court set the case for the second day of the March term.

fodsy the grand jury returned indictments against Foster, Nelson, Spere and Saunderson for promoting poncy, selling liquor on Sunday and without license, for gambling, etc. Court adjourned till Saturday.

trate Varney of the county heard the case against Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway Company. R. H. Philips, manager of the road, was enarged in a warrant recently obtained by a citizen of the county with unlawfully obstructing the public roads of Alexandria county by laying railroad tracks across said county roads, and failing to properly arrange crossings for the protection of vehicles and per-Mr. J. E. Clements appeared for the detendant manager, while Mr. Frank Lyon represented the prosecution. The former moved to quash the information on the ground that the supervisors of the county alone had power to bring the charges and prosecution specified in the warrant. This motion was overruled, and, after hearing the case, the defendant was held guilty and fined $1. Thereupon an appeal was noted, and the case will be carried to the County Court for retrial.

THE MEMORIAL BRIDGE.—The board of engineer officers and architects ap-pointed by the Secretary of War to examine the plans and designs submitted for the erection of a memorial bridge in Washington yesterday. chairman of the board, said after the meeting that it may not be necessary to hold another session. Further in-formation was denied upon the ground that the findings of the board would be submitted to Secretary Root before being made public. All of the members of the board were present, and the time was taken up with the examination and discussion of the designs. Later the members examined the proposed sites for the shore piers of the bridge.

THE RIVER.—At dark yesterday evening the river was full of ice, only that in the channel being broken and running with the tide. The ice on the flats on either side was from one to three inches thick. This morning hardly a vestige of ice could be seen, the heavy southeast wind and rain of last night having broken it up and melted it, causing it to disappear in a most re markable manner. Navigation, which yesterday was closed to everything but steamers, is now open to the smallest sailing vessels, and the preparations for the fishing season, which had been sus-pended, will now be resumed at once.

BITTEN BY A Dog.-Three boys, named respectively Jackson, Stearns and Wood, were bitten early last night on Washington street and near the for the erection of a memorial bridge postollice by a large black dog. The over the Potomac river held a meeting dog is said to belong to Mr. Charles Burroughe. Officers Atkinson Sherwood repaired to the scene for the purpose of killing the capine, but when they arrived it could not be found. is not believed the dog was suffering from hydrophobia. It is said that some children had previously been teasing it, and the youngsters bitten chanced to pa-s by at the time when the brute was suffering from irritation.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Harry H Haines and Inettie M. O'Meara, both of this city. March having come in like a lion, it is hoped that some of the lamb-like qualities may soon manifest themselves.

Howard M Shuster, eldest son of Wm M. and Caroline V. T. Shuster, died in Washington yesterday, in the 21st year of his age. A semi-monthly meeting of the Knights of Mystic Chain was held in I O. O. F. Hall last night with a good attendance. Considerable business of importance was transacted. A very heavy rain fell last night accom-panied by a strong southeasterly gale and this morning there were several other heavy showers. Later the skies cleared and the mercury rose to 56°. The skies soon became overeast again, though clearing, colder weather is predicted.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve

For the Babies. There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough t liquefies the tough mucus, making t easier to expectorate, and lessens

To secure the original witch hazel salve, ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, well known as a certain cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. They are dangerous.
